Paul Graham Drilling & Service Company is looking for a Field Safety Specialist.

Paul Graham Drilling is an Oil, Gas, and Geothermal drilling company headquartered in Rio Vista, CA, with job locations throughout California, the Western United States, and Central America.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assures Health, Safety, and Environmental compliance with Cal OSHA, Fed OSHA, local laws and company requirements.
- Support Paul Graham Drilling & Service Company Safety Management System
- Performs hazard assessments
- Encourages a culture of safety at all times
- Conducts safety meetings
- Performs safety assessments
- Conduct training
- Performs general HSE administrative duties as needed
- Performs other duties assigned by the Safety Director

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Working knowledge of Federal OSHA, Cal OSHA, API, and ANSI
- Self-starter who is able to prioritize workload and efficiently manage time with minimal oversight
- Ability to professionally represent Paul Graham Drilling
- Able to work under pressure
- Detail-orientated, consistent, and accurate
• Excellent interpersonal, communication, and presentation skills
• Able to work as a team player
• Must be willing to travel
• Ability to work an on-call schedule

Qualifications:

• High School diploma
• Education in a safety related field of study preferred
• 3 – 5 years’ experience in the safety field with an emphasis in construction or oil and gas experience. Oil, gas, or geothermal drilling experience desired.
• Capable of lifting/carrying up to 50 pounds
• Able to sit, stand, walk, bend, squat, climb ladders and stairs
• Able to wear appropriate PPE, including fire resistant clothing

To Apply: Send resume to katie@paulgrahamdrilling.com